SIXTY-FIFTH DAY

(Wednesday, May 11, 1977)

The Senate met at 10:30 o'clock a.m., pursuant to adjournment, and was called to order by the President.

The roll was called and the following Senators were present: Adams, Aikin, Andujar, Braecklein, Brooks, Clower, Creighton, Doggett, Farabee, Hance, Harris, Jones of Harris, Jones of Taylor, Kothmann, Lombardino, Longoria, Mauzy, McKnight, Meier, Mengden, Moore, Ogg, Parker, Patman, Santiesteban, Schwartz, Sherman, Snelson, Traeger, Truan, Williams.

A quorum was announced present.

The Reverend Jack C. Burton, Woodlawn Baptist Church, Austin, Texas, offered the invocation as follows:

Eternal God,

Whose law is truth and whose statutes stand forever—

Strengthen the hands of these who are here by the will of the people who are privileged to be about the molding of the future.

May the spangled flag of this free land ever be the symbol of hope for the oppressed and the coerced and exploited everywhere.

In these grim days, when for power and greed, human rights are mocked and betrayed, may these men and women here labor with vision and valor for the enthronement of Thy reign of law and love, of equity and righteousness.

May we never doubt the final triumph of Your redeeming purpose for all Your children of every race.

Make plain to our understanding that legislative enactments and economic adjustments in themselves cannot bring salvation to men. But that all our efforts must be undergirded by a spiritual reliance and a sustaining strength not our own, without which we labor in vain, without which all else is futile.

Father, may the movement of Your Spirit be felt here today, for it is in our Redeemer's Name that we pray. Amen.

On motion of Senator Aikin and by unanimous consent, the reading of the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday was dispensed with and the Journal was approved.
